Description

A pair of Cobridge, poppy & ice pattern, hand painted, table lamps on Perspex bases. Measures: 16" high One of Cobridge Pottery's most popular patterns, designed by artist Anita Harris, leading designer at Cobridge, Moorcroft & her own studio

- Beautiful, lively, naturalistic pattern with an impressionistic quality diffusing and softening the poppies and ice into the sky blue background. - Each vase is hand painted, reflecting the painter's hand and interpretation of the pattern. On this vase the pattern is pared down on this vase to a minimal quality - Juxtaposes with period interiors and blends into modern and contemporary schemes. - One marked JS © 03 AH underneath - The tones of blue, red, green and titanium white are warm and harmonies with most color schemes. - The conversion is recent so it conforms to UK electrical standards. - Provenance: Private collection. Collected for the subtle differences of the painting on each vase reflecting the hand of different artists or a different interpretation by the same artist. - Can be sold as a collection or individually.
