

A good, early-18th century English delftware dish

Sold

Description

Painted with a chinoiserie design of a central roundel with a mimosa spray amongst rhomboid leaves with a surrounding border of five repeat sprays within concentric circles. The rim painted with six repeats of the same pattern. Painted in blue on a blue glaze. Rim chip restoration. Probably Bristol, or Wincanton, second quarter of the 18th century.

Diameter : 31.10 cm./12.25 in.